

SECURITY ADVISORY

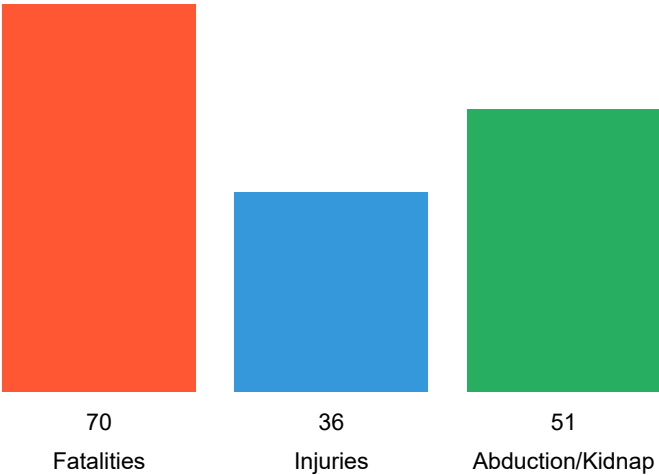

WEEK: Wednesday, March 27, 2024 to Wednesday, April 3, 2024

Fatalities: 70 | Injuries: 36 | Abduction/Kidnap: 51

Security Risk Update:

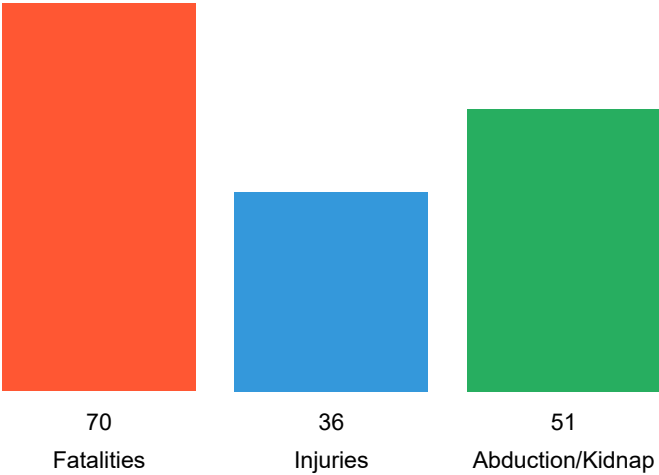

Some relevant data about effects on assets goes here. Lorem ipsum dolor sit amet, consectetur adipiscing elit. Sed eget ex urna. Donec id tempus nulla. Duis eget nunc vitae elit interdum dapibus.

Risk Impact:

Some relevant data about risk impact goes here. Vestibulum efficitur ligula et nisi semper, ac eleifend dolor mollis. Suspendisse potenti. Nulla facilisi. Integer vel lacus nec arcu gravida malesuada.

Highlights of Week 4 incidents: - Increased security patrols in high-risk areas - Collaboration with local authorities for incident response - Implementation of new security protocols

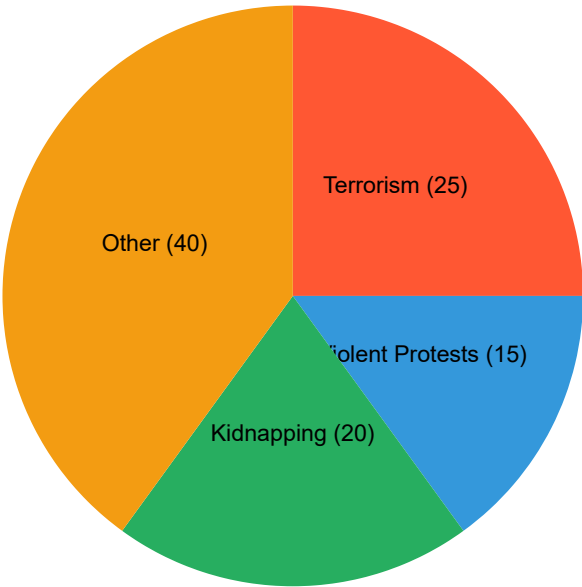

Key security incidents

1. Akwa Ibom. August 22, 2023, Gunmen suspected to be armed robbers intercepted a man along Uyo-Etinan Road in Etinan, Etinan LGA, and stole his saloon car.
2. Abuja. August 21, 2023, Gunmen suspected to be kidnappers reportedly abducted two persons at a residential estate in Sabon Lugbe along Airport Road, AMAC. No further details were available.
3. Benue. August 21, 2023, Gunmen belonging to rival groups suspected to be herdsmen reportedly engaged themselves in a gun battle at Chito village, Ukum LGA. Five persons were reportedly killed in the gun battle while others sustained gunshot injuries.
4. Imo. August 22, 2023, The Nigerian Army reportedly engaged in a gun battle with armed men suspected to be separatist members along the Owerri-Onitsha expressway at Ukwuorji, Mbaitoli LGA, forcing the assailants to flee the area.
5. Edo. August 23, 2023, Gunmen suspected to be armed robbers reportedly attacked a patrol vehicle belonging to soldiers along Akpakpava street in Benin, Oredo LGA. The assailants reportedly injured one soldier.
6. Delta. August 24, 2023, Gunmen on motorcycles suspected to be cultists reportedly attacked a Police Division in Isiokolo community, Ethiope East LGA. The assailants reportedly killed one Policeman while another sustained gunshot injury.
7. Rivers. August 22, 2023, Suspected criminals vandalised a pipeline and siphoned fuel at a fuel dump in Rex Lawson Street in Borikiri town, Port Harcourt which resulted in an explosion and reportedly killed one person.
8. Rivers. August 22, 2023, Two factions of the National Union of Road Transport Workers (NURTW) reportedly clashed along the Port Harcourt-Aba Road in Oyigbo, Obior/Akpor LGA. No further details were available.
9. Rivers. August 22, 2023, Armed men suspected to be cultists reportedly attacked a student at his residence in Rumuolumeni Town, Obio/Akpor LGA. The assailants reportedly stabbed the victim with broken bottles.

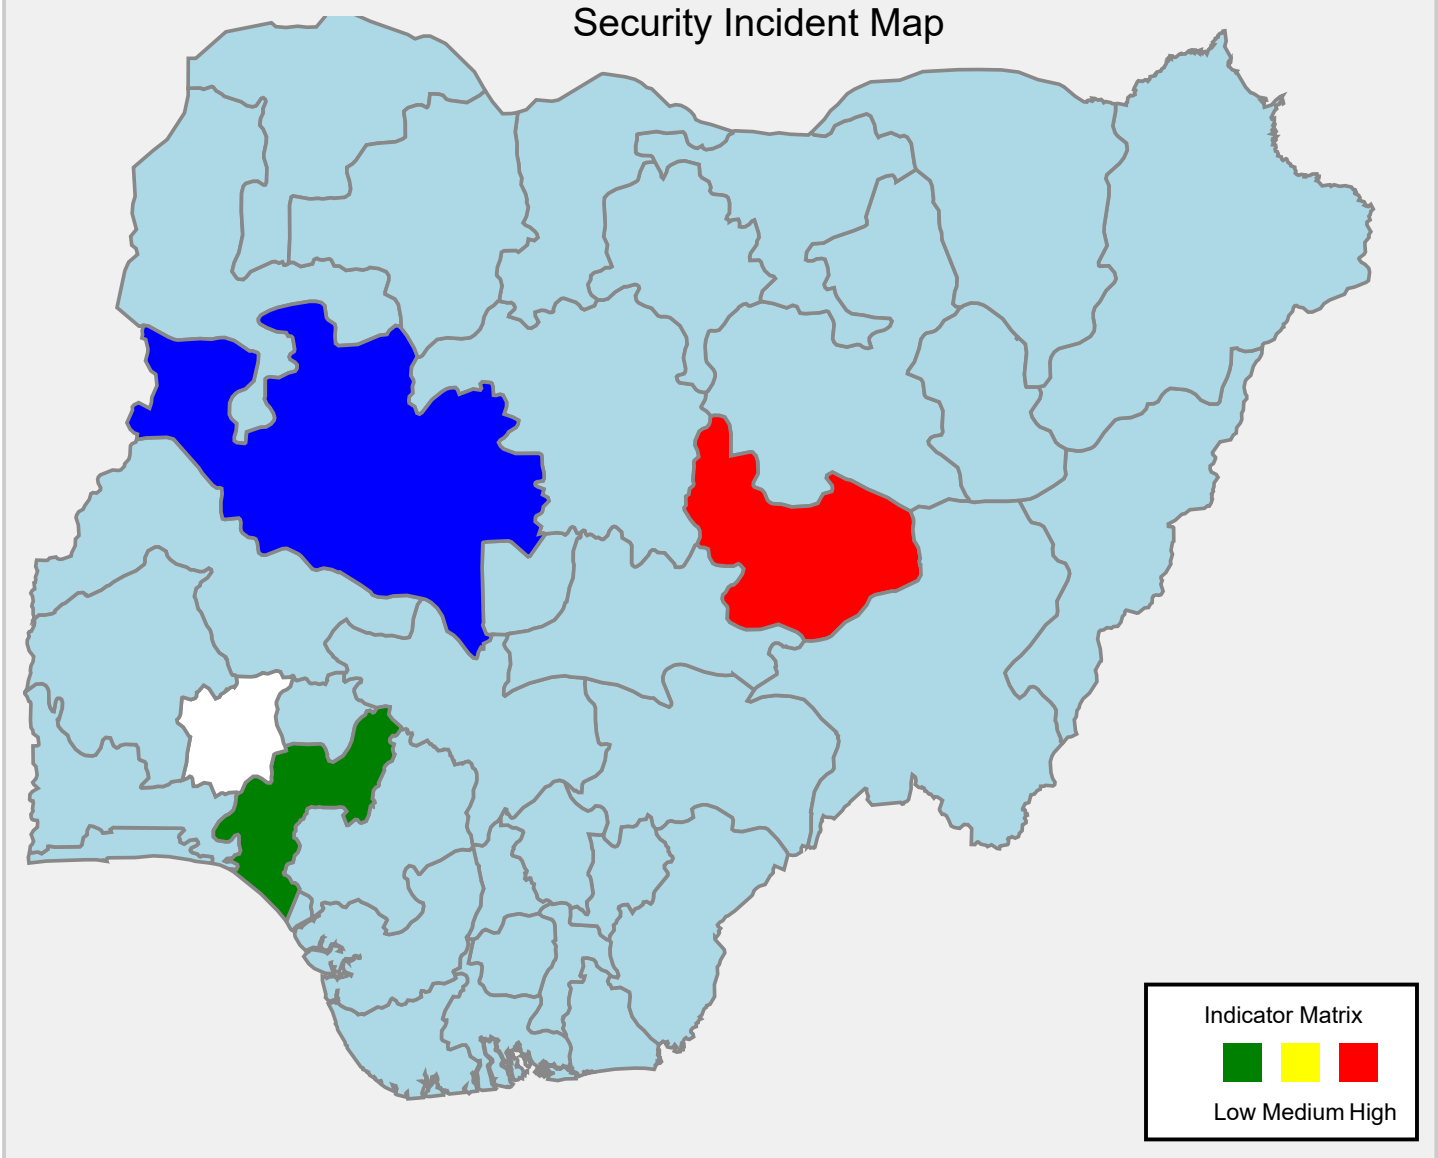

10. Rivers. August 23, 2023, Armed robbers reportedly attacked the Rivers State University Girls Hostel at Eagles Island, Rumueme, Port Harcourt LGA. The assailants reportedly assaulted students with machetes, robbed, and dispossessed an unspecified number of the students of their cash and other valuables.
11. Rivers. August 25, 2023, Armed men suspected to be cultists reportedly shot and killed a Policeman on security escort duty along Olusegun Obasanjo Road in Oroworukwo area, Port Harcourt LGA.
12. Abia. August 21, 2023, Armed men suspected to be kidnappers, reportedly engaged in a shootout with government security forces at Ndiawa village, Umuneochi LGA. Three of the assailants were reportedly killed while others fled.
13. Ebonyi. August 23, 2023, Armed men suspected to be separatist members, reportedly engaged Soldiers in a gunshot battle at Effium community, Ohaukwu LGA. The assailants reportedly fled the scene. No further details were available.
14. Enugu. August 21, 2023, Armed men suspected to be kidnappers reportedly engaged Policemen in a shootout along Enugu-Port Harcourt Expressway, in Awkunanaw town, Enugu South LGA. Two of the assailants were reportedly killed in the gunfire, while others fled with gunshot injuries.
15. Enugu. August 21, 2023, Gunmen suspected to be kidnappers, reportedly shot at a vehicle along Old Enugu-Onitsha Road in Obioma town, Udi LGA, forcing the vehicle to stop. The assailants reportedly abducted one person while the other two occupants died from gunshot injuries.

Security Incidents Breakdown

Mota-Engil Operational Zones: Security Overview

Security Incident Map

Vitor Leite,
Security Manager,
Kama Railway Project

Signature